Trying a response chosen together

We will record one choice and the experience of trying it. New information or a real need calls for inquiry, not ignoring it.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 The worry we chose

What concern was our conversation's focus?

02 The information we used

What was known and what remained open?

03 The agreed approach

What will we try, under what conditions and with what support?

04 What actually happened?

What did I do or not do, and what influenced that?

05 What did I learn, and is there new information?

What changed in my understanding or circumstances?

06 What will I bring to the next conversation?

What will we keep, explore or change together?
