Children, approximately ages 6 to 11

When is it hard for me, and what happens then?

Together we will choose one difficulty and a recent example. We can fill this in by talking.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 What was hard, and where did it happen?

What did I want to do, and what actually happened?

02 When did it start, and how often does it happen?

You can say once, sometimes or many times. You do not need to guess.

03 What did I notice happening to me?

What did I think, what did I feel in my body, and how did I respond?

04 How does this affect my day?

What becomes hard to do? Are there times when it is easier?

05 What helps, and what else would we like to understand?

Who or what helps? What question will we bring to our next conversation?
