Exploring a thought and choosing what helps

Answer in writing or conversation. We will choose a thought you want to understand, at a pace and in a way that suit you.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 What happened and what did I think about it?

A brief description of the situation and the meaning I gave it.

02 What in the situation supports my thought?

Information I actually know, and how I know it.

03 What else should I consider?

Other information or something that does not fit my whole conclusion.

04 What do I not know, and how else might I understand it?

I can leave a question open without choosing a new explanation.

05 What wording fits what I know?

A sentence in my words that acknowledges both the difficulty and what remains unclear.

06 What step or help will I choose?

What might help me, and what adjustment or support would I like?
