In-session worksheet | Adolescents, approximately ages 12 to 17

Exploring an interpretation and choosing my response

Together we will explore one thought using information and context. Uncertainty can remain, and changing the thought is optional.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 The situation and interpretation I chose to explore

What actually happened, and what did I tell myself it meant?

02 What information supports the interpretation?

What did I see, hear or learn from a suitable source, separate from my guesses?

03 What information broadens or changes the picture?

Another detail, exception or context I may not have considered.

04 What is missing, and what other possibility is there?

I can write that there is not enough information or no other explanation that fits.

05 What can I tell myself that is accurate and helpful?

Wording that considers what is known, unknown and needed.

06 What response would I like to choose?

A step, boundary or request for help that fits the situation and my goal.
