CORE-05 | In-session worksheet | Children, approximately 6–11

A small step toward something that matters

Together we will choose something that matters to me and an action that fits now. I can talk while the therapist writes.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 What matters to me and what would I like to do?

A game, relationship, learning or something else I chose.

02 What is it like for me today?

What do I already do, and what is hard to start?

03 What will my small step be?

Something we can see I did. We can make it smaller together.

04 When and where will I start?

What will I prepare, and what reminder would I like?

05 What could be hard and who will help?

What will we change if the step is too big, and when will we discuss what happened?
