A small action that matters to me

We will choose something you want to do and build a step suited to your life and preferences.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 What matters to me and how are things now?

An activity, relationship or area of life I would like to make room for.

02 What small action will I choose?

What can I try now, and how will we reduce it if unsuitable?

03 When and where would starting suit me?

A time, place and preparation that may help.

04 What help or adjustment would I like?

What could be hard, and what can we arrange while preserving my choice?

05 When will we review what I learned?

What do I want to remember about what happened and how well the step fitted?
