CORE-06 | In-session worksheet | Teenagers, approximately 12–17

Choosing an approach to a specific problem

We will separate what I can influence from what needs help or external change.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 What is the problem and desired situation?

A specific example and practical goal, rather than a general description of me.

02 What can I influence?

Which parts need support or others' action?

03 What options are available?

We will list several ideas, including asking for help or changing conditions.

04 What are the benefits and difficulties of each option?

Time, effort, consequences and fit with what matters to me.

05 What will I choose and what is the first step?

A choice I can try, without requiring a perfect solution.

06 How will I plan and how will we review?

Timing, support and what will indicate how well it fits.
