Getting acquainted

You can answer in conversation, skip questions and return to a topic later. We will start with what matters to you now.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 What brought me to this meeting?

The current difficulty, reason for seeking help, and what I would like my therapist to understand.

02 How does the difficulty affect my life?

Functioning, relationships, work, family, sleep or another area.

03 What matters to know about me beyond the difficulty?

Interests, roles, values, culture or identity, as I choose.

04 What already helps me?

Strengths, support and ways of coping; I can also note what did not help.

05 What would I like to be different?

A meaningful change in my life, even if the goal is not yet clear.

06 How do I prefer to work, and what matters to clarify?

Pace, language, accessibility, previous experience, limits on sharing and questions for the therapist.
