Getting to know me

You can talk and your therapist can write. You may skip a question, stop, or come back to it another time.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

> Together with the therapist, we will clarify who takes part in the conversation and what may be shared with others.

01 What would I like you to know about me?

Something I enjoy doing, something that interests me, or something that matters to me.

02 What brought me to this meeting?

What is hard for me, and what would I like my therapist to understand?

03 Where do I notice this in my day?

For example, at home, at school, with friends or around sleep.

04 What helps me, and what would I like to be different?

Something that already helps, and one small thing I would like to change.

05 How would I feel comfortable working together?

What will help me talk? What would I like to ask or say later?
