Core 01 | Adults | Direction and goals

Goals and a shared plan

We will define a personal direction, a noticeable change and a first step that fits current circumstances.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 What do I want to make room for in my life?

An area, relationship or value this work is intended to support.

02 What is the situation like now?

Specific functioning, actions or situations that reflect the starting point.

03 What goal will we choose together?

A practical change we can describe and review, without requiring complete control of feelings.

04 What first step is possible now?

An action within my influence, on a scale we can adapt.

05 What supports this step, and what could make it harder?

Resources, support, limitations and necessary adaptations.

06 How and when will we review progress?

A personal sign of change and a date to review the goal and step together.
