Core 01 | Adolescents, approximately ages 12 to 17 | Direction and goals

A direction I want to choose

The goal needs to fit my life and what matters to me, not only other people's expectations.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 What area of life matters to me now?

For example, relationships, school, independence, family or something else.

02 What is happening in that area today?

What works, what is hard, and what would I like to change?

03 What would a noticeable change look like?

An action or participation in life that I can describe clearly.

04 What first step suits me?

Something within my influence that we can plan together.

05 What might help, and what could make it harder?

What support or adaptation would I like, and from whom?

06 How and when will we review progress?

What will we check, and how will we know whether to adjust the goal?
