MEANING-06 | Therapist only - all age groups

Reconsidering and moving forward

1 | Purpose, fit and boundaries

Purpose of this unit

Summarize chosen directions and resources and explore how they fit the current period. The outcome is a flexible way to update decisions and receive support without having to find an overarching story or meaning in suffering.

Choice and adaptation

Choose this sheet following professional assessment and with consent. The person may skip questions, answer aloud, or choose another tool. This is proposed original material for review; it provides no score, diagnosis, or promise of an outcome.

Boundaries specific to this unit

There is no demand to find purpose in difficulty, be grateful, or hold a particular faith. There is no single hierarchy of values for everyone. Summarizing the series is not treatment authorization or a replacement for assessing distress or significant changes in functioning.

Reusing existing material

Use only what was helpful in MEANING-02–05. CHANGE may help when life circumstances shift; repeating the whole values map at every change is unnecessary.

A fictional example for discussion

Fictional example: After a work change, Yael chooses fewer commitments and preserves one important relationship. She sees the adjustment as a choice for the current period, not failure of the previous plan.

> Draft for administrator review. Clinical review and final rights approval are still pending.

Working together with the worksheet

2 | A conversation about one situation

Opening

Choose a situation the person wants to explore. It need not be the hardest situation. Check that the question is understood and the wording fits the person; their account comes before the therapist's interpretation.

1 | Question for discussion

What values and resources are relevant to the current period?

2 | Question for discussion

What has changed since the previous actions were chosen?

3 | Question for discussion

What commitments should continue, be adjusted, or stop?

4 | Question for discussion

What limited review method will be used when things change?

5 | Question for discussion

When will I seek further support or professional assessment?

Closing

Summarize what became clearer and what remains open. Use the existing SES-S01 and SES-S02 for the session framework. There is no need to repeat an assessment or plan already recorded.

Possible difficulties

If summarizing creates pressure to show progress, return to what actually helped and what did not fit. There is no need to finish with a sense of meaning or a complete plan.

Adapting for four age groups

3 | Age is a starting point, not an assumption about ability

CH | Children, approximately ages 6 to 11

A drawing or conversation with a suitable adult can summarize learning. A statement about the future or ability to explain meaning is unnecessary; the adult supports a small present-day choice.

Offer one question at a time with little writing. Adult support must not replace the child's own voice.

TE | Adolescents, approximately ages 12 to 17

Respect changes in identity and direction without labeling them inconsistent. Sharing with family or a setting should respect privacy and consent.

Agree in advance what will be shared and with whom, and explain the privacy limits in this setting. Do not promise absolute confidentiality.

AD | Adults

Allow commitments to be updated because of circumstances, health, and resources. Do not turn a value into an unchangeable agreement or a duty to find benefit in every difficulty.

OA | Older adults

Continuity or a new beginning can be chosen without an expectation of reviewing a whole life. Respect uncertainty, a preference for quiet, and wishes for help or independence.

Offer reading support, time, and conversation according to preference. Choose help from another person together with the participant, respecting their privacy.

> Each age version needs its own review. Approval of one version does not automatically approve the others.

Practice, review and next steps

4 | Shared choice and learning from the attempt

Before offering practice sheet P

Direction may be reviewed when things change or at a chosen time, without a fixed ritual. Action or a declaration to others is not required; professional support remains available according to need.

At the next session

Summarize a chosen tool, a boundary, and a route to support. Leave room for change and open questions; finishing a series does not end the need for support.

Professional and technical records

Each version has a separate review record covering age suitability, originality, rights, and fictional filling. Reviewer and date fields remain blank until assigned. File checks or a code merge are not clinical approval. Clinical information stays only in the authorized setting, outside the code repository.
