ANX-03 | In-session worksheet | Teenagers, approximately 12–17

A problem needing action or an open question?

We will separate known information from a worrying possibility. Both may be involved, requiring more than one type of response.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 What worry am I exploring?

Specific wording in my own words.

02 What is known and what is a prediction?

Facts, their source and what is not yet clear.

03 What needs a practical response?

An actual need, urgency and a suitable person to help if needed.

04 What is within my influence?

What can move forward, and what depends on others or remains unknown?

05 What response will we choose with the therapist?

Practical action, necessary inquiry or work on worry and my response to it.

06 How and when will we revisit the choice?

An agreed step, support and a review condition if information changes.
