Getting to know the difficulty in daily life

We will choose one example and explore what happens and under what conditions. You can answer aloud.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 What was difficult, and in what situation?

What did I want to do, and what actually happened?

02 When did it start, and how often does it happen?

You can describe it in words or say you do not know yet.

03 What did I think, feel and do?

You can also note body sensations or an action you avoided.

04 How does it affect my day, and when is it easier?

What stays intact, what is harder, and what helps?

05 What else matters to explore?

A question, changed circumstances or a topic to bring to the next conversation.
