Understanding the difficulty in my life

We will choose one difficulty and explore a recent example without rushing to label it.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 In what area do I notice the difficulty, and what happened recently?

Describe an actual situation, the place and relevant people, without unnecessary details.

02 Since when, and how often?

Describe how long the difficulty has lasted and when it recurs; it is fine to say this is unknown.

03 What did I think, feel and do in that situation?

I can add body sensations or something I wanted to do but did not do.

04 How does it affect me, and what is different when it is easier?

School, relationships, routine or participation; what helps, and what makes it harder?

05 What matters to me to explore next?

An open question, another area or a different explanation to consider.
