One moment, several possibilities

Choose a situation you want to understand better. You can leave out identifying details and discuss them in the meeting.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 What happened, before interpreting it?

A brief account of one event and what could be seen or heard.

02 What interpretation did I give it?

What did I tell myself about me, other people or what was about to happen?

03 What did I feel, and what happened in my body?

A feeling, its intensity in words, and any body sensations I noticed.

04 How did I respond, and what came of it?

What did I do or avoid doing? What was the immediate and later effect?

05 What else influenced that situation?

What in the surroundings or conditions had an effect? What do I still not know?

06 What would I like to understand in our meeting?

A question about the link between what happened, what I thought and how I responded.
