In-session worksheet | Adults

Exploring an interpretation and developing a balanced response

We will choose an interpretation to explore together and form a response based on information, uncertainty and relevant needs.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 The event and chosen interpretation

What happened, what was the thought and what did it mean to me?

02 Information supporting the interpretation

What is actually known, from whom and in what context? What is information and what is a conclusion?

03 Other information to consider

What might qualify or broaden the interpretation, or show differences between situations?

04 Uncertainty and other possibilities

What is still unknown? What other explanation fits the information, if any?

05 Balanced wording in my own words

What can I say that acknowledges the difficulty and available information without promising an unknown outcome?

06 A possible helpful response

What can I do, request or arrange to address my needs and chosen goal?
