Getting to know me and what matters to me

This is a space for your point of view. We can fill it in together, skip questions, or discuss a topic later.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

01 What matters for others to know about me?

Interests, relationships, identity, values or something on my mind.

02 Why am I here, and how do I feel about this meeting?

What would I like others to understand? I can also say that someone else suggested coming.

03 Where does the difficulty affect my life?

School, home, friends, sleep, independence or another area.

04 What already helps me?

A personal strength, person, activity or way of coping that works for me.

05 What would I like to happen through our work here?

A change that matters to me, even if I do not yet have a clear goal.

06 How would I feel comfortable working, and what would I like to ask?

Pace, how we talk, privacy and sharing with others; we will clarify the limits with the therapist.
