Core 01 | Adults | Session opening

Opening the session and choosing a focus

We will update what changed, learn from practice and choose a shared goal for this session.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

> At a first meeting, we can start with the current situation and a focus, without reviewing previous practice.

01 How am I arriving at today's meeting?

A personal description of emotional state, energy and relevant body sensations.

02 What has changed since the previous session?

Events, functioning, successes, difficulties or changed circumstances.

03 What did I learn from the planned step?

What was done, and what was its effect? If it was not done, what barriers arose?

04 What matters to me to focus on today?

A chosen topic and a possible goal for our work together.

05 What will allow us to work in a way that suits me?

Priorities, pace, accessibility, support or a point that needs agreement.
