Core 01 | Children, approximately ages 6 to 11 | Session opening

What matters to me today?

You can talk and the therapist can write. Together we will choose what to work on in the meeting.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

> If this is our first meeting, we can skip questions about last time.

01 How do I feel today?

I can name one feeling or several, and what I noticed in my body.

02 What matters to me to share?

Something pleasant, hard or important since we last met.

03 What have I tried since last time?

I can also say that I did not try, and what made it hard.

04 What helped me, and what would I like to change?

Together we will think about what might suit me better.

05 What will we choose to work on today?

What would I like to understand or try in this meeting?

06 What will help me in the meeting?

For example, a spoken explanation, a short break or working together.

Mindful Path