Core 01 | Older adults | Session opening

What matters to me in today's meeting?

You can answer in writing or conversation, at a pace and in a way that suits you.

Client code _____ Date _____ Session number _____

> At a first meeting, we can skip questions about last time.

01 How do I feel today?

What matters to mention about my mood, energy or body sensations?

02 What has been meaningful since we met?

An event, relationship, success or difficulty in daily life.

03 What happened with the step I chose to try?

What helped, and what made it harder? I can also say that I did not try.

04 What would I like to focus on today?

What matters to me to understand, change or move forward in this meeting?

05 What will help me take part comfortably?

For example, a different pace, another explanation, a break or support I choose.

Mindful Path